

We remain concerned and apalled that a toxic cement plant is allowed to operate in densely populated Cupertino. It's high time that we move this plant further away from population. People's lives are at risk. Citizen's should also have the right to determine what plant get approved in their city. Please shut down Lehigh Cement Plant immediately.

Manish
Cupertino Citizen