Public Workshop February 28, 2014 Clean Air Plan Update & Climate Protection Strategy

Over the next several months, the Air District will be updating its Clean Air Plan. This update will include a comprehensive set of strategies to improve public health and protect the climate by reducing air pollution and greenhouse gases. The workshop is a prime opportunity to share your ideas on new, innovative ways to reduce ozone precursors, toxic air contaminants, particulate matter, and greenhouse gases within the San Francisco Bay Area.
