There are existing recyclers, truck yards, gas stations, and truck repair shops in West Oakland that have been there for years. They would not be allowed new today. But are considered a nonconforming activity (use).

- Chapter 17.114 of Planning Code addresses requirements for Nonconforming Uses.
- These truck uses above are considered nonconforming activities because they are now prohibited in the CIX-1A through CIX-1D Zones.
• Nonconforming activities can continue to operate as long as they remain active.

• Discontinuance of nonconforming activities:
  • In most areas of the City if they discontinue active operation for a continuous period of one (1) year and another operation with the same activity does not start up again until after the one year has past, this type of nonconforming activity cannot start up again unless a conditional use permit is granted.
  • As part of West Oakland Specific Plan and rezoning, this requirement was tightened for nonconforming Trucking and Truck-Related Industrial Activity or Recycling and Waste-Related Industrial Activity in the CIX-1A through CIX-1D Zones. If they discontinue active operation for ninety (90) days, instead of one (1) year, and another operation with the same activity does not start up again within the ninety (90) days, the activity cannot start up again unless a conditional use permit is granted.
