

BAY AREA AIR QUALITY MANAGEMENT DISTRICT

MUTUAL NONDISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

CONTRACT NO. [year].[number of contract]

1. Parties – The parties to this Agreement are the Bay Area Air Quality Management District whose address is 375 Beale Street, Suite 600, San Francisco, CA 94105, and [name of company or individual] whose address is [address, city, state, zip].
2. Purpose – The parties wish to explore a business opportunity of mutual interest and, in connection with this opportunity, each party may disclose to the other certain confidential technical and business information which the disclosing party desires the receiving party to treat as confidential.
3. “Confidential Information” – As used in this Agreement, “Confidential Information” shall mean any nonpublic information provided by one party (“Disclosing Party”) to the other (“Receiving Party”) either directly or indirectly, in writing, orally, or by inspection of tangible objects, which is proprietary to a party or designated as “Confidential Information” or which, under the circumstances surrounding disclosure, ought to be treated as confidential by the Receiving Party. “Confidential Information” shall include, without limitation, all technical and non-technical information including patent, copyright, trade secret, and proprietary information, techniques, sketches, drawings, models, inventions, know-how, processes, apparatus, equipment, computer hardware, algorithms, software programs, software, source documents, and formulae related to the current, future and proposed products, services, and methods of operation of each of the parties, and includes, without limitation, their respective information concerning research, experimental work, development, design details and specifications, engineering, financial information, procurement requirements, and purchasing information. “Confidential Information” shall also include proprietary or confidential information of any third party who may disclose such information to either party in the course of the other party’s business.
4. Non-use and Non-disclosure – Each party agrees not to use any Confidential Information of the other party for any purpose except to evaluate and engage in discussions concerning a potential business relationship between the parties. Each party agrees not to disclose any Confidential Information of the other party to third parties or to such party’s employees, except to those employees or independent contractors of the Receiving Party who are required to have the information in order to evaluate or engage in discussions concerning the contemplated business relationship. Neither party shall reverse engineer, disassemble or de-compile any prototypes, software or other tangible objects which embody the other party’s Confidential Information and which are provided to the party hereunder.
5. Maintenance of Confidentiality – Each party agrees that it shall take reasonable measures to protect the secrecy of and avoid disclosure and unauthorized use of the Confidential Information of the other party. Without limiting the foregoing, each party shall take at least those measures that it takes to protect its own most highly confidential information and shall ensure that its employees or independent contractors who have access to Confidential Information of the other party have signed a non-use and non-disclosure agreement in content similar to the provisions hereof, prior to any disclosure of Confidential Information to such employees. Neither party shall make any copies of the Confidential Information of the other party unless previously approved in writing by the other party. Each party shall reproduce the other party's proprietary rights notices on any such approved copies, in the same manner in which such notices were set forth in or on the original.

6. Exceptions to Obligation of Confidentiality – This Agreement imposes no obligation upon the Receiving Party with respect to Confidential Information which: (a) was in the possession of, or was known by, the Receiving Party prior to its receipt from the Disclosing Party, without an obligation to maintain its confidentiality; (b) is or becomes generally known to the public without violation of this Agreement; (c) is obtained by the Receiving Party from a third party, without an obligation to keep such information confidential; (d) is independently developed by the Receiving Party without use of or reference to Confidential Information, or becomes available to the Receiving Party by wholly lawful inspection or analysis of products offered for sale; or (e) is transmitted after the expiration of this Agreement. Further, the Receiving Party may disclose Confidential Information pursuant to a valid order issued by a court or government agency, provided that the Receiving Party provides the Disclosing Party: (a) prior written notice of such obligation; and (b) the opportunity to oppose such disclosure or obtain a protective order.
7. Ownership of Confidential Information and Other Materials – All Confidential Information, and any Derivatives thereof whether created by Disclosing Party or Receiving Party, remain the property of Disclosing Party and no license or other rights to Confidential Information is granted or implied hereby. For purposes of this Agreement, "Derivatives" shall mean: (i) for copyrightable or copyrighted material, any translation, abridgement, revision or other form in which an existing work may be recast, transformed or adapted; (ii) for patentable or patented material, any improvement thereon; and (iii) for material which is protected by trade secret, any new material derived from such existing trade secret material, including new material which may be protected by copyright, patent and/or trade secret. All materials (including without limitation, documents, drawings, models, apparatus, sketches, designs and lists) furnished to one party by the other, and which are either designated in writing to be the property of such party or are otherwise clearly the property of such party, shall remain the property of such party and shall be returned to it promptly at its request, together with any objects thereof.
8. No Obligation – Nothing herein shall obligate either party to proceed with any transaction between them, and each party reserve the right, in its sole discretion, to terminate the discussions contemplated by this Agreement concerning the business opportunity.
9. No Warranty – All Confidential Information is provided "as is." Each party makes no warranties, express, implied or otherwise, regarding its accuracy, completeness or performance.
10. Term – The term of this Agreement shall be one (1) year from the Effective Date. The obligations of each Receiving Party hereunder shall survive for a period of five (5) years following the termination of this Agreement or until such time as all Confidential Information of the other party disclosed hereunder becomes publicly known and made generally available through no action or inaction of the Receiving Party, whichever is earlier.

11. NOTICES – All notices that are required under this Agreement shall be provided in the manner set forth herein, unless specified otherwise. Notice to a party shall be delivered to the attention of the person listed below, or to such other person or persons as may hereafter be designated by that party in writing. Notice shall be in writing sent by e-mail, facsimile, or regular first class mail. In the case of e-mail and facsimile communications, valid notice shall be deemed to have been delivered upon sending, provided the sender obtained an electronic confirmation of delivery. E-mail and facsimile communications shall be deemed to have been received on the date of such transmission, provided such date was a business day and delivered prior to 4:00 p.m. PST. Otherwise, receipt of e-mail and facsimile communications shall be deemed to have occurred on the following business day. In the case of regular mail notice, notice shall be deemed to have been delivered on the mailing date and received five (5) business days after the date of mailing.
