BACKGROUND

- The Hearing Board is a quasi-judicial body that rules on particular cases that typically affect only individual facilities. It is authorized to hear requests for variance relief, permit revocation, abatement orders, and appeals by permit applicants, or by interested third parties, concerning the issuance or denial of permits.
- The Hearing Board consists of five members and their alternates, including the following categories: Professional Engineer, Attorney, Medical Profession, and two Public Members.
- Hearing Board members serve a term of three years and are eligible for reappointment until they have served 15 consecutive years.
