Bay Area Air Quality Management District statement regarding Chevron Refinery project

SAN FRANCISCO - Today the Bay Area Air Quality Management District, along with the City of Richmond, heard plans for Chevron's Conditional Use Permit application, submitted to restart Chevron's refinery project. The Air District is committed to providing technical assistance to the City of Richmond throughout the CEQA phase of the application process. Additionally, upon submission, the Air District will review Chevron's air quality permit application, ensuring it meets all applicable air quality standards.

The Bay Area Air Quality Management District (www.baaqmd.gov) is the regional agency chartered with protecting air quality in the nine-county Bay Area.
